REEDWOOD LINDROVE CAVATA ASSIGNMENT
Base Trace on Subject of Reference Identity 1

BONN 25933, 26 January 1962

1. Subject is employed in an administrative capacity by the ANSCASSONARY 1 publication (see reference Identity 2). He was born 12 November 1920 in Radzino, Poland. His wife, Identity 3, to whom Subject was married in 1943, remained with Subject's mother and sisters in Lvov, USSR, when Subject was mobilized into the 85 Galician Division in 1944. He has had no contact with his wife or his mother since 1949. Subject had one daughter, Identity 4 and two sisters, Identities 5 and 6. His father died in 1938. This information may be passed to CAVATA.

2. An Operational Approval No. 48496 was issued Subject on 26 July 1956 permitting his use as an accommodation address. A new Operational Approval was requested in early July of this year to cover his use by the ANSCASSONARY 1 group. A FOA was received on 1 August 1962.

3. It is requested that the interest in Subject be followed with CAVATA and this office kept informed of any new developments. Please forward any information CAVATA may provide re Subject's involvement in the KIRPICHYEV case, particularly the basis for the statement that Subject was one of KIRPICHYEV's targets.
